

COUNCIL ON HIGHER EDUCATION

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE SOUTH AFRICAN MATRIC CLASS OF 2023 FROM THE COUNCIL ON HIGHER EDUCATION

The Council on Higher Education (CHE) warmly congratulates the matric class of 2023 on their achievement which marks the culmination of years of hard work, dedication, and perseverance.

We especially welcome the new matriculants that will embark on higher education studies at our universities and private higher education institutions.

As you stand on the threshold of a new chapter in your academic journey, we wish you continued success in higher education. Your dedication to learning and growth has brought you to this point, and we are confident that you will carry this spirit forward as you take on the exciting challenges that await you.

Higher education is a transformative experience that will not only expand your knowledge but also shape your character and prepare you for the opportunities and responsibilities that lie ahead. Embrace the adventure of learning, explore new ideas, and engage with diverse perspectives.

Remember that education is not just about acquiring facts, but also about developing critical thinking, creativity, a lifelong passion for knowledge, and a desire to contribute to the betterment of society.

As you pursue your studies in higher education, know that the Council on Higher Education is here to support you. Our commitment to ensuring quality education in South Africa remains unwavering, and we are dedicated to fostering an environment that nurtures your academic and personal growth.

We also extend our appreciation to Umalusi, the Department of Basic Education and to all the teachers across the country for their relentless efforts in contributing to the success of our matriculants.

Warm regards,

Council on Higher Education (CHE)
