

WIL WORKSHOP: PRIVATE PROVIDERS

05 MARCH 2012

11:00 – 16:00

Birchwood Hotel & Conference Centre
BOKSBURG

Workshop goals:

- 1) To introduce models and types of work-integrated learning (WIL);
- 2) To introduce workshop participants to key concepts in professional education and WIL;
- 3) To showcase, and share, good WIL practice;
- 4) To discuss implementation issues with regard to good WIL practice.

Time	Agenda	Facilitators
11h00	Welcome and introductions	CHE
11h15	Introduction to Work-integrated learning: a good practice guide	Prof Chris Winberg
11h30 12h00	Profession knowledge, curriculum, and WIL - Q&A	Dr James Garraway Prof Chris Winberg
12h15 12h30 12h45	Case studies of WIL: curriculum, teaching, learning and assessment Case study 1 – learning from an engineering programme Case study 2 – learning from a health science programme	Prof Chris Winberg Prof Penelope Engel-Hills
13h00	Break
14h00	Participatory exercise sharing best practices in WIL - Visual gathering - Report back	Prof Chris Winberg
15h00	Panel and discussion: approaches that make a big difference 1. ICTs and social media 2. Integrated assessment tasks? 3. Invited assessment panels 4. Researching WIL	Prof Chris Winberg Prof Penelope Engel-Hills Dr James Garraway
16h00	Thanks and closure	CHE