

Nomination for Membership of the Accreditation Committee (AC) of the Council on Higher Education (CHE)

The Accreditation Committee (AC) is a sub-committee of the Higher Education Quality Committee (HEQC), which is established to assist the HEQC in the performance of its quality assurance functions, specifically, its programme accreditation function.

The functions of the AC are to:

- Consider the programme accreditation applications submitted by public and private higher education institutions and make recommendations to the HEQC as to whether the programmes should be accredited or not, including recommending the conditions to be attached.
- Consider institutional representations in relation to the outcomes of the accreditation process and make recommendations to the HEQC in this regard.
- Advise the HEQC on systemic issues which may arise out of the accreditation process, including the impact of relevant policies on programme accreditation.
- Advise on the efficient and effective implementation of the HEQC Accreditation Framework and Criteria.

The membership of the AC consists of 29 members, and 20 of such members should be from public and private higher education institutions with expertise in programme design, teaching and learning, including academic planning across the three broad fields of study, namely, business/commerce, humanities/social sciences and science, engineering and technology and the different qualification types.

Members of the AC are appointed for a period of three years, and they can serve for a maximum of two terms.

Please submit all nominations through a formal nomination letter from the person making the nomination, accompanied by a comprehensive CV of the candidate, and the candidate's letter of acceptance of nomination to:
