

Press Release

The Southern African Quality Assurance Network (SAQAN) Announces the New Executive Committee

SAQAN is pleased to announce the new Executive Committee. At its April 26, 2022, biennial general assembly, the Network elected:

President	Prof. Stephen Simukanga, Chief Executive Officer Zambia Higher Education Authority
Vice- President	Dr Lits'abako Ntoi, Chief Executive Officer Council on Higher Education: Lesotho
Treasurer	Dr Whitfield Green, Chief Executive Officer Council on Higher Education: South Africa
Executive Secretary	Ms Sylvia Demas, Deputy Executive Director National Council for Higher Education: Namibia
Additional Member	Dr. Hardson Kwandayi, Director for Academic & Institutional Audits Zimbabwe Council for Higher Education

The Executive Committee is, among others, responsible for implementing the Strategic Plan, the bi-annual plans and policies as approved by the General Assembly.

The Committee members began their four-year term effective 26 April 2022 and may be eligible for re-election for one more term only.

SAQAN was founded in 2015 as a voluntary and non-profit organisation made up of membership from quality assurance agencies, higher education institutions and professional bodies in the SADC region.

Issued by the Executive Secretary